Dock, Drop Anchor & Explore

Below are a few itinerary ideas to help you make the most of your visit.

Explore our picturesque village! Take a hike on Kidston Island, an extension of Baddeck Waterfront, visit some of our local shops and businesses or tour the Alexander Graham Bell National Historic Site. In the afternoon, simply relax on your boat or explore a variety of nearby secluded anchorages to swim, kayak or paddle board. After dinner, take part in a "Ceilidh" (pronounced "kay-lee") where local fiddlers, dancers, and Gaelic storytellers warmly welcome you for a visit and some rollicking traditional tunes.

Enjoy a hike to one of our island's beautiful waterfalls or a round of award-winning golf! Head to nearby Uisce Bàn Falls Provincial Park, a 1.5-hour round trip hike to a spectacular waterfall just 14.5 km (9 miles) north of Baddeck. This 1.5 km (1-mile) trail leads to a spectacular waterfall in a granite gorge. Noted for offering some of the best, most intriguing, and most exciting golf in all of North America, Cape Breton Island is home to courses ranked as among the best in the world! Closest to Baddeck is the beautiful Thomas McBroom championship course, Bell Bay Golf Club, high above the Bras d'Or Lake, overlooking the Baddeck Bay.

Take a drive around the world-famous Cabot Trail which National Geographic calls one of the world's great drives! As you leave the Village of Baddeck and head north, you will soon find yourself hugging the coastline as you begin your ascent through the Cape Breton Highlands National Park where lush, boreal forest river canyons carve into the ancient plateau, edged by rust-coloured cliffs. The Cabot Trail gives you a front-row seat to the highest mountains in Nova Scotia that drop almost straight to the sea, combining to give Cape Breton Island some of Canada's most beautiful coastal scenery. As you round the Cabot Trail, you can meet local artisans, watch for wildlife, hit the beach or a hiking trail, and sample Canada's first single malt whisky at Glenora Distillery.
